The Council of Jewish Women met in an unusually interesting meeting on Monday afternoon in the vestry room of B'nai Zion Temple. Mrs. Amelia Eiseman, president, was in the chair and Mrs. Herbert Loeb, secretary, was on duty. It was decided to contribute a sum of money toward furnishing lunches for school children unable to purchase same. A committee of ladies and gentlemen from the Y. M. H. A. waited upon the council with the request for co-operation and that their rooms be used by the ladies for their meeting. Judge D. B. Samuels, chairman of committee, made a fine talk on the subject, as also did Mr. A. L. Snyder and Dr. Bernhard. The generous offer was accepted and the next meeting will be announced for the Y. M. H. A. rooms. The topic of the program was one bringing out broad information of the vast contributions to science made by members of the Jewish faith, under the general heading of "Contemporary Jewish Scientists." Briefly outlined this splendid program was as follows: "Paul Erlich" (antitoxin and other contributions to benefit of mankind. Mrs. Louis Abramson, "Albert Neisser (remedial measures of vast import to the race.) Mrs. Etta Harris Blum. "Oscar Hammerstein," (leader in theatre building, dramatic writer and apostle for theatrical uplift.) Mrs. Carol Cahn. "Hugo Munsterberg, (psychologist), Mrs. Eli Weiner. "Dr. Jacoby," (great physician, Mrs. Jack Bazelon. An editorial, "The Season of the Year," a very fine paper, taken from the Monitor, read by Mrs. W. Meyer and received with much enthusiasm and applause from those present. "Metchinikoff," (Bacterologist), Mrs. N. Meyer. Mrs. Seymour Florsheim added to the evening's entertainment with songs and Mrs. Joe Silverberg gave instrumental numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Goetschel gave a box party on Wednesday evening at the Grand Opera House to hear Arliss in "Jacques Duval," followed by supper at the Cafeteria, to see the old year out. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Goetschal and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Elbott.

Mrs. Harriette Davis and grandson, Isaac Barron Reed of Hot Springs, Ark., are visiting Mrs. Isaac Barron.

Harry H. Kelly and Albert B. Kelly are out after a week shut in on account of tonsillitis.

The annual New Year's Charity

Hospital dinner, given under the auspices of the International Sunshine Society, was most successful from every standpoint, the abundance of supplies, the good service rendered by friends and the enjoyment of the participants. Each ward had a personal, homelike touch in the way of decorations and songs, stories and devotional exercises were given in the wards. Among the Jewesses assisting in this work were Mrs. Nonie Meyer, Miss Pearl B. Peiser and Mrs. Morris Barron. Mrs. M. Barron gave cash donations to each patient in ward 3 and 9.

The annual New Year's Eve dance given by the Columbia Club went off brilliantly with a fine attendance.

Miss Leah Samuels has returned home after spending a while with Mrs. Mabel Semansky of Little Rock, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Friedenburg had as their guests for a box party at the Grand Opera House to hear Arliss in "Jacques Duval," Mr. and Mrs. Will Leonard, Mr. Herman Zodiag, Miss Syble Zodiag, Mr. Abry Sour, Bill Leonard and little Miss Elizabeth Friedenburg. After the play the party went to the Cafeteria for supper and the New Year's Eve festivities.

RELIEF EXTENDED TO VIENNA.

Thousands of Jewish refugees from France, England, Belgium, Galicia, Bukowina and Palestine, are stranded in Vienna, suffering for want of clothing, shelter, food and facilities for return to their own countries, according to a report from the Vienna branch of the Joint Distribution Committee to the International Headquarters of the organization, made public today. The refugees include former soldiers unable to return to their homes upon demobilization because of the war between Poles and Ukrainians in Galicia, students and professional men marooned in Vienna, where they had sought refuge during the war, and hundreds of war orphans, whose parents were refugees who had died in Austria.

The report stated that 15,680 persons had been aided by the Joint Distribution Committee in three months. Regular allowances were given to all aged persons, wives of war prisoners, widows and orphans, professional men and teachers. Two meals are served daily to needy students and others are fed at soup kitchens.

Special care has been given to more than 2,000 sick persons. This includes free hospital care, the establishment of a free clinic, free medicine, eggs and milk. In order to care for hundreds of orphans, the Joint Distribution Committee subventions several orphan asylums. The organization has also under its care twenty-three deaf-mute children.

"Perhaps the most interesting and constructive activity conducted by the Joint Distribution Committee in Austria," the report states, "is the work with the children who, weakened by hardships, undernourishment and exposure, require special attention to build them up physically. Through the Jewish National Council of Austria, the Joint Distribution Committee arranged to have various organizations and private families in Holland, Switzerland and Denmark undertake to care for weak and anaemic children sent to them to recuperate. The Vienna Branch of the Joint Distribution Committee bought clothing and equipment for every child and paid its transportation to and from vacation place. 1450 children were thus sent for special outings.
